Dear Harold:

I received your letter of July 30, 1975, with interest.

I appreciate your caution concerning Hugh Aynesworth, and recall your having previously cautioned me in Memphis. Our relationship with Aynesworth was handled in such a manner that I am certain no prejudice will result therefrom.

I would like to fly up to the Washington area some weekend soon and have a leisure visit with you and Jim. When might be a good time for me to come?

Very truly yours,

DAVIS, PATCHEN & HAGERTY
